

A detailed historical map of Rome, showing the city's layout, the Tiber River, and various landmarks. The map is oriented with North at the top. The title and author's name are overlaid on the map. The map itself is a woodcut-style print, showing a dense network of streets and buildings. The Tiber River flows through the city, with several bridges crossing it. The map is divided into sections by the river and other major roads. The title 'ARTE E DIPLOMACIA' is in large, bold, serif capital letters. Below it, 'A vivência romana dos embaixadores joaninos' is in a smaller, elegant serif font. The author's name 'TERESA LEONOR M. VALE' is at the top in a smaller, bold, serif font. The publisher's name 'SCRIBE' is at the bottom in a large, stylized serif font. The map includes labels for various landmarks and districts, such as 'Porta del Popolo', 'Porta del Leone', and 'Porta del Sol'. The map is a detailed representation of the city's topography and urban planning.
